Press Statement of the Supreme Court of Maldives
(04th February 2018)

As the Prosecutor General's Office, letter number 196-A1/197/2018/03, requested further counsel and deliberations to execute order number 2018/SC-SJ/01 of the Supreme Court, the council of Justices of the Supreme Court decided that no legitimate reasons prevail which obstruct relevant authorities of the State from executing number 2018/SC-SJ/01 (01 February 2018) court order of the Supreme Court and that where legal actions may be necessary to conduct retrials as prescribed in the court order, there is no restriction for the Prosecutor General to process it through the relevant courts and the matter was communicated to the Prosecutor General on 4th February 2018.
